0416 02 Flatbed truck and trailer (MAN "Pausbacke")

There's a lot to look forward to this autumn with the launch of both classics and youngtimers – WIKING's new models for October really bring automotive history to life! The vehicles making an appearance include the Audi 50 and the Ford FK 1000 bus which have been created using new moulds, along with a model of the original Goggomobil which once graced the roads in the form of a fire service vehicle. Another vehicle which also played its part for the fire service was the original VW T2. The model on which the Isabella police car is based was once seen on the roads of Borgward's hometown of Bremen. We take a ride back to the 1960s and 1970s with the MAN "Pausbacke", the MAN 19.230 with stanchion trailer and the Magirus Saturn as an imposing concrete mixer. 1:32 enthusiasts will be pleased to know that there is now an adapter coupling that can be used to hitch two-point supported agricultural machines from the SIKU Farmer series to WIKING tractors without any problem. And because the traditional model-makers at WIKING always have plenty of stories to tell, that exclusive publication – the WIKING MAGAZINE – has now been published for 2012. When it comes to the success of WIKING's model upgrades, it's all about the mix! A new ADAC vehicle joins the range in October in the form of the VW T5 Multivan. We also have the VW Passat B7 Variant in a fresh new up-to-date colour. Classic car enthusiasts will delight at the legendary DKW 1000 Special Sports coupé and the Mercedes-Benz L 319 Panorama bus. Other vehicles making a reappearance include the Mercedes-Benz LP 1317 box truck alongside the MB short-nose truck fitted with a water cannon which was so popular with the police force. The Unimog 411 which was promoted to become the standard vehicle of the Swiss army in the 1950s has also been upgraded along with the "Fortuna" agricultural trailer and the Mercedes-Benz 260 D. The special "City" model of the VW Beetle 1303 brings back memories of the colourful "flower power" era after which the heyday of the Beetle slowly began to peter out at the start of the 1970s. Another vehicle joining the range is the Mercedes-Benz city bus O 305 in 1:160.
