WIKING's new models for June which will be available via specialist shops focus on vehicles from every era. One of the newest additions to the range is the LF 10/6 fire service vehicle with Rosenbauer Compactline superstructure and the latest MAN TGL cab and it is joined by the VW Passat B7 saloon and the passenger car trailer with tarpaulin. However, WIKING then allows us to take a look back at automotive history by giving us the elegant Glas 1700 GT sports coupé from Dingolfing, the Borgward B611 in the form of an ambulance and the VW 181 as a service vehicle for the German Red Cross. WIKING also takes us back to the theme of the 1950s with the Pampa tractor, the Lanz clone from Argentina. The Volvo N10 makes an appearance within the range as a container carrier articulated truck from the 1980s in the livery of ASG - a long-bonnet youngtimer with its own undeniable and individual Swedish origins. Once again, WIKING proves that it can create die-cast models of excellent quality on a scale of 1:32 with the Fendt 939 Vario. The precious model of the big tractor from Marktoberdorf boasts superb filigree detailing - a visual treat for fans of the scale.

Enjoy meeting old friends again as WIKING breathes new life into classic moulds! The model upgrades for June include the Mercedes Benz 180 Ponton as well as the MB L 10000 which have rejoined the range. Other classic vehicles making a reappearance are the legendary BMW Isetta - once commonly referred to as the "pothole detector" of the 1950s - as well as classics such as the VW T1 combination which is in the form of a contemporary educational vehicle used to give advice to housewives. Alongside the Fortuna manure spreader we have the Metz turntable ladder 23/12 on an Econic low-floor chassis as well as the New Beetle, both in the latest colours. The traditional model-makers have also created a limited edition set of models from the Dortmunder Actien-Brauerei ("DAB") to evoke memories of the once proud brand from Dortmund whose fleet of snow white vehicles was a familiar site in the Ruhr district in the 1960s. The first Opel Blitz along with the Hanomag Kurier and the Krupp 806 are all faithful reproductions of the original flatbed trucks which were used to distribute beer. N-gauge fans need not feel left out as WIKING has created the Magirus container carrier articulated truck in the livery of the shipping company "Hamburg-Süd" as well as a set of fire service vehicles.
